PREFACE

IS is the fifth volume of biographies removed om Who's Who on account of death. It contains the tries of those who died in the years 1951–1960. In few instances the details are included of a biographee ose death occurred before 1951 but was not notified us until too late for inclusion in the appropriate lume of Who was Who.

The entries are for the most part as they last peared in Who's Who, with the date of death added d in some cases further additional information to ing them up to date. In rare instances the date death could not be ascertained, and information garding such dates is welcomed for inclusion in a bsequent edition.

With the first four volumes of Who was Who, vering the years 1897–1915, 1916–1928, 1929–1940, d 1941–1950, the present book should enable the quirer to dispense with the earlier annual volumes Who's Who, research into which for a particular try may be a considerable task, especially if the date death be unknown. A further volume of Who was ho will be published at the close of each decade.
